

Peter Michael McConville, 88, of Upper Marlboro, MD, passed away peacefully on January 20, 2026 surrounded by loving family.

He was the beloved son of Peter and Mary (Keane) McConville of Bronx, NY. From an early age, Peter demonstrated a deep curiosity about how things worked, a trait that would shape both his career and his life.

Peter proudly served in the United States Army, enlisting in 1963 and receiving an honorable discharge in 1965. His service reflected the discipline and dedication that defined him throughout his life.

At a young age, Peter developed a passion for cars and boats, spending countless hours enjoying car and boat racing. That passion for mechanics naturally evolved into a lifelong career as an automotive technician. Peter loved solving mechanical problems and cared deeply about the quality of his work. Through dedication, skill, and grit, he achieved recognition as the top GM automotive technician on the East Coast—an accomplishment that reflected both his talent and strong work ethic.

Music was another source of joy in Peter's life. He especially loved Caribbean steel drum music and took great pleasure in listening to his family play bluegrass whenever they gathered together.

Peter shared 60 devoted years of marriage with his beloved wife, Bernadine (Mehal) McConville. His greatest joy was his family, and he put his heart and soul into providing for them. He was a dedicated father to three sons: Sean, Kerry (Mitzi), and Dana (Mindy). He was also a proud and loving grandfather to seven grandchildren: Taylor McConville, Emily Choporis, Evan McConville, Logan McConville, Porter McConville, Brody McConville, and Brielle McConville.

Peter's life was rich with curiosity and creativity—qualities he shared generously with everyone fortunate enough to know him. His legacy lives on through his family, his work, and the lives he touched.
